Housing Guide
Full Sail University is committed to the needs of our students. We recognize their needs regarding housing, home furnishings, and housewares and have developed the Housing Department with those needs in mind.

The Housing Guide offers information regarding local apartment housing. Included are rental rates, information on deposits and pet fees, and general information about the amenities each complex has to offer. Periodically, complexes run specials, so be sure to ask.

If you should wish to have a roommate(s), the Housing Coordinators will put you in touch with other Full Sail students seeking roommates. It will be your responsibility to contact these individuals, but it is important to keep us apprised of your status regarding your roommate situation and your apartment selection.

Having a roommate is a personal matter. The Housing Department does not involve itself in roommate selection or roommate relationships except to inform you of others who may be seeking a roommate and to pass on information from other students. No judgments are made about whether an individual may be a good roommate for you or not.

We look forward to having you at Full Sail and will do all we can to help make your move to Orlando as economical and convenient as possible.

Dear Future Student,

My name is Barbara Smith, and I am the Director of Housing Resources for Full Sail University. I would like to welcome you to Full Sail and encourage you to contact the Housing Department. Our job is to help you make a smooth transition to the Winter Park area.

Once you have enrolled and selected a start date, you will be automatically assigned a coordinator. Your Coordinator will be your personal contact for relocation and is always happy to address all of your questions and concerns regarding your move to Winter Park.

This Housing Guide provides information about relocating and includes information on Full Sail-friendly apartment complexes in the area, as well as information about furniture, utilities, local stores and restaurants, medical facilities, etc. The Housing Guide is updated every two months and is always current on the Full Sail website. Study your Housing Guide carefully and think about which complexes appeal to you. Contact your Housing Coordinator for more details about the complexes you are interested in. We have a diverse student body and a wide variety of complexes. Your Coordinator can help you determine if a complex is right for you. Please be sure to contact the Housing Department prior to submitting your application or deposit to ANY apartment complex.

Reviews on the Internet are not always accurate representations of a complex. The Housing Department receives constant feedback about the complexes in the area, and our team visits the complexes regularly. We are happy to share this information with you. Also, please remember that websites that offer to help you find apartments or roommates are not familiar with the needs of Full Sail students and often do not provide accurate information. Full Sail’s Housing Department has all of the information you need to make your relocation to Winter Park easy and successful. Utilize your Housing Department!

We can also assist you in finding a roommate(s) to share expenses. Having a roommate is less expensive than living alone. Contact your Housing Coordinator to complete a roommate profile and receive a roommate list. If you live locally, want to live alone, or have a roommate already, let us know!

A good time to start looking at your housing options is when your tuition and living expenses have been secured. We look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Barbara Smith,

Director of Housing Resources

YIELDSTAR/LRO

The rates listed in the Housing Guide are current as of the date of publication. Actual rates may vary. Many apartment complexes offer specials that may vary throughout the year, so please inquire about them when requesting your application. Office hours are seasonal and may change slightly.

Yieldstar and Lease Rent Options (LRO) are pricing programs used by some apartments in this guide to calculate prices daily based on availability. Please note that complexes using Yieldstar/LRO are indicated throughout the guide using an asterisk (*). You should request a written quote that specifies how long the price is valid for when considering a complex as an option.
PROVIDING PROOF OF INCOME

All apartment complexes have certain eligibility requirements that students must meet in order to be approved for an apartment. Every student must undergo:

- Proof of income. Students and parents must be able to demonstrate that they earn three to five times the rent to be approved. Most students need cosigners (parents, grandparents, aunts/uncles, etc.) to prove income. Some complexes will consider an Estimated Award Letter (provided by your Enrollment Guide). It shows that the student is drawing living expenses from their loans.
- A criminal background check. Students with felony charges and certain misdemeanors are unable to rent apartments.
- A credit check. Most complexes have similar credit standards that students must meet.

Providing Proof of Income Without Student Aid or Cosigner

Students who do not receive student or government aid must meet one of the following criteria for proof of income.

Pay stubs: You are required to meet the minimum gross income of three times the monthly market rent. To enable the apartment complex to verify your income, you will need to provide copies of your three most recent local pay stubs or a letter from your employer if you recently started a job.

Tax return: If you do not have pay stubs because you are a business owner, you may provide the complex with a copy of your most recent tax returns or a letter or statement from a certified public accountant that confirms your monthly income.

Bank statement: Some complexes will ask for three or six recent and consecutive bank statements or investment statements to verify your monthly income.

Offer letter: If you are relocating and already have employment, you will need to provide an offer letter with your new employer's information. The letter must include the following:

- The company name on the letterhead
- The position you were hired for
- Your salary and start date

The complex will also require you to provide the name of a contact person to verify that the information is correct.

No current employment: Requirements for renting an apartment without proof of employment vary, so be sure to ask the apartment complex or property manager what is required.

Visiting Apartment Complexes

If you have plans to visit Full Sail's campus, this is also a great opportunity to visit apartment complexes. Apartments are available for viewing during open business hours without an appointment, and the leasing staff will be happy to show you all property amenities as well. Before you visit apartments, please contact your Housing Coordinator to discuss which apartments you intend to visit. Your Housing Coordinator can give you essential information and also help you determine if a particular apartment is well suited to your individual needs. This will save you valuable time and energy during your visit.

There are many apartment complexes located in the area and most of them offer one, two and three bedroom apartments. Amenities often include swimming pools, tennis courts, racquetball courts, volleyball courts, car wash areas, laundry facilities, exercise facilities and barbecue areas. The amenities for each complex are listed with estimated pricing and floor plans. When choosing an apartment, consider the floor plan, location, amenities and your budget.

Apartments are unfurnished in most cases; however, there are affordable options for obtaining furniture. Cort (www.cort.com) offers furniture for rent or purchase at discounted student rates. You will find their information near the end of this guide.
Houses
Are houses a viable option for Full Sail students? Not only are rental homes more expensive than apartments, they come with many responsibilities that apartments do not, such as lawn and pool maintenance and pest control. Home maintenance is time-consuming and expensive, whereas apartment living is easier and amenities are included for your enjoyment. Families and elderly people in neighborhoods are not tolerant of noise and excessive activity, and rules are strictly enforced by the Home Owner's Association. Well-managed apartment complexes are almost always the best option for our students.

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ

For Parents
The Full Sail University Housing Department presents expert relocation information. Just as you have been very involved with the admissions and financial aid processes, we encourage you to stay involved during the housing process.

The first step in securing housing for your student is to contact your Enrollment Guide Team. They will answer all of your funding questions and provide you with a budget worksheet that will help you estimate monthly living expenses. After speaking with your Enrollment Guide Team, contact the Housing Department to discuss your student’s accommodations. We look forward to helping you successfully transition your student to Full Sail!

International Students
The Housing Department welcomes you to Full Sail University. If you are an international student, you would want to reach out to your International Admissions team, as apartment complexes have slightly different approval requirements for international students. For most apartments, students must provide:

- I-20 and/or visa
- Passport
- Bank letter demonstrating adequate income
- One month’s to two months’ rent as a security deposit (refundable when the lease is completed)

You are encouraged to secure your housing before you arrive for registration. If you choose to find an apartment after you arrive in Winter Park, then you must arrive at campus up to a week before your registration date. This way, you have plenty of time to secure an apartment and move in before registration/orientation week. You will be very busy during this week, and you may find it challenging to make housing arrangements while taking care of your other school obligations.

Veteran Students
Thank you for your service to our country. If you are using VA benefits to pay for your living expenses, then please be aware that you can use them to demonstrate income to some apartment complexes; however, you still need to be able to demonstrate that you make three to five times the rent monthly. We recommend that you reach out to your Enrollment Guide for guidance. You can also accomplish this by finding a cosigner or roommate. Roommates are able to combine incomes at most apartment complexes to demonstrate adequate income.

At Full Sail, you choose your own roommate rather than being assigned one. If you would like more information on finding a roommate or proving income to an apartment complex or have any other questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the Housing Department.

Prior Offenses
All apartment complexes perform criminal background checks on prospective tenants. If you feel that your background check may reflect past criminal behavior, you are encouraged to discuss this information with an apartment complex before submitting your application and fees. In most cases, applicants with felonies will be declined automatically. Misdemeanors are often considered on a case-by-case basis with the severity of the crime and the date of the conviction being taken into account.

It is best to assume that ANY past criminal history will appear on your background check. Students have been surprised to find that this is true even when they have been told that the record was sealed or expunged. Failure to disclose a criminal background on a rental application will automatically result in the applicant being declined—even if the complex would ordinarily be able to work with the charge.
If you have any concerns about being declined for an apartment based on your background check, then you are encouraged to talk to the apartment openly about your situation BEFORE you submit your application.

UTILITIES INFORMATION

Utilities that are generally not included in the rent payment include: electricity, Internet, telephone, water, sewer, and trash. You can estimate your utility expenses by first contacting the apartment complex that interests you. The complex can provide you an address of a one-, two-, or three-bedroom unit as well as the name of the utility company that services the complex. The utility company can then tell you the average power usage for that unit over the last 12 months.

Electric Power

Duke Energy serves the Winter Park area. A $28 connection fee is required. A free credit screening is offered through Equifax to determine if the deposit may be waived. Florida Power Corporation requires 24 hours notice for the connection of new service. For additional information, contact Customer Service at 407.629.1010 or 800.700.8744 Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. (EST).

Orlando Utilities Commission serves the Orlando area. The deposit may be waived after completion of a credit screening though Equifax. Orlando Utilities requires 24 hours notice for the connection of new service. For additional information, contact Customer Service at 407.423.9100.

Electricity is usually not included in the rent. The actual costs depend upon your living habits, apartment size and the season. Power bills in Florida are generally higher in the summer.

Television, Internet, and Telephone

Your apartment complex will provide you with the phone numbers for any needed services pertaining to your apartment.

TRANSPORTATION

Students who do not have cars must live within 1.5 miles of Full Sail so that they can walk or bike to class. These students are encouraged to seek rides from classmates or travel with a group of classmates. Students should never walk alone—day or night.

Public Transportation

Please be advised that while local buses are useful for getting around town, they cannot be used as a student’s primary source of transportation to and from class as we are a 24-hour school.

Orange, Seminole and Osceola counties are serviced by the Lynx public bus system. They do not run 24/7. The earliest buses pick up at 4:30 a.m. and the last bus leaves downtown Orlando at 12:15 a.m. Please call 407.841.8240 or go to www.golynx.com for information regarding the bus schedule for your apartment complex or to purchase a bus pass.

Carpooling

While carpooling is strongly recommended as a great way to save money on gas, students who do not have cars must live within walking or biking distance. Even if their roommate has a car and they are in the same degree program, a student cannot rely on his/her roommate as a reliable source of transportation.

STUDENT SAFETY

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ

We encourage both students and parents to keep safety in mind as you prepare for college. Full Sail takes crime prevention and education seriously. Some helpful tips include:

- Trust your instincts. If you see something, say something. If you sense trouble, get away as soon as possible.
- Show confidence. Walk at a steady pace, keep your head up, and avoid carrying a lot of packages.
- Don’t appear to be an easy target. Robbers want someone who will provide the least resistance. Walk as if you know where you are going, with your head up and eyes alert.
• Be observant. Avoid talking on your cell phone, remove the ear buds from your iPod, and take off obstructive clothing—these are all distractions.

• Remain alert and observe the people around you. Know who is walking behind and in front of you. Watch for suspicious persons or vehicles.

While the possibility of a break-in is a fact of life, there are simple and commonsense precautions that students can take while they live here to minimize their risk. Here are some recommendations:

• Remove all expensive/important belongings any time you park your car, regardless of how quickly you plan to return. If you do leave any valuables in your car, make sure they are in the trunk and out of sight of passersby. A smash-and-grab only takes a few seconds, so protect anything of value by keeping it with you. Park in areas that will be well lit when you return. Check the interior of your vehicle and surrounding area before entering your vehicle.

• Lock the doors on your car and in your apartment, including sliding glass doors. Criminals generally look for the path of least resistance, and simply locking your doors will often make breaking in more effort than it’s worth for a thief.

• Do not advertise that you live alone. Avoid leaving notes on your door announcing when you will be home. Keep your curtains or shades closed at night, and keep outdoor lights on at night.

• Obtain renters insurance. This is a very inexpensive way to safeguard your belongings. See the Table of Contents in this Housing Guide for the Renters Insurance Agents section. Discuss the type of computer you have and its value with your agent and make sure it will be protected at all times—whether it is on your person, in your apartment, or in your car. It is also recommended that you inventory and photograph all of your valuable belongings, including make, model, serial number, etc. Consider engraving electronics with your driver’s license number for identification purposes in the event they are stolen.

• Limit the number of people you allow into your apartment. This is the best way to prevent advertising your belongings to those who may want to steal them. In many cases, homes are burglarized by someone a student knew and thought he or she could trust.

• Do not allow strangers into your home, even if they are hurt or say they need help. Keep the door locked and call the police for them.

• If you walk or bike to class, travel with other classmates or neighbors and always stay in well-lit and highly visible areas. Don’t do anything that would impair your senses (e.g., listening to music on headphones). Remain aware of your surroundings at all times and vary the routes you take to and from campus—don’t be predictable. When traveling, know your destination and plan your route of travel. It is also a good idea to remove your Full Sail ID when you leave campus.

• Be sure to back up all your data—you will spend a lot of time and hard work creating wonderful projects here at Full Sail. You don’t want to lose all of this work because you didn’t back up your data.

• If you observe any suspicious persons, vehicles, or activities, or if you are the victim of a crime, notify the police immediately. In many cases, time is of the essence, and even a short delay can be detrimental to an investigation. Do not leave the scene of the crime unless it is unsafe or you need help. Many times, the police will need to see the exact location of the crime.

• Be wary of fraud schemes—both online and in person. Thoroughly check all references before entering into any agreement or contract, whether written or verbal.

Full Sail has joined with the Orange County Sheriff’s Office as well as many of the complexes found in our Housing Guide to create a Security Summit. This group meets every quarter to discuss topics that impact student safety on and off campus and to work continually on prevention and education. Second, Full Sail requires that all incoming students attend a safety seminar during Orientation/Registration. This seminar helps students understand ways to protect themselves and their belongings and encourages students to take a preventative stance against burglary and theft. Remember to take the time to activate LoJack on your laptops.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Full Sail’s Housing Department or Security Department, and we’ll be happy to help.
Title IX

Full Sail University complies with the guidelines and requirements of Title IX, Educational Amendments of 1972 and has adopted procedures and policies to address allegations of sexual violence as outlined under Title IX. The university encourages any student who experiences sexual violence/harassment to report it and request appropriate interim measures and remedies. The university will offer services and processes that provide access to the educational program without regard to sex. The university prohibits sexual violence/harassment occurring off campus, as well as on campus, in accordance with Title IX.

Title IX is a federal law that prohibits sex-based discrimination in all activities and programs of educational institutions receiving federal funds.

UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATORY BEHAVIORS UNDER TITLE IX

- SEXUAL HARASSMENT (unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature)
- SEXUAL MISCONDUCT (rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, sexual exploitation, and other forms of non-consensual sexual activity)
- STALKING (repeatedly following, harassing, threatening or intimidating including by telephone, mail, electronic communication, or social media)
- DATING VIOLENCE (including emotional, verbal, and economic abuse without the presence of physical abuse)
- DOMESTIC VIOLENCE (including emotional, verbal and economic abuse without the presence of physical abuse)
- RETALIATION (adverse employment, academic, or other actions against anyone reporting or participating in an investigation of Title IX allegations)

REPORTING PROHIBITED BEHAVIOR

Members of the university community who believe that a Title IX violation may have occurred should discuss their concerns and/or file a complaint with the university’s Title IX Coordinator:

Housing Checklist

1. One step to enrollment is to let your Housing Coordinator know if you are not looking for a roommate. If you are local to the area or commuting, let us know.

2. Typically your Admissions Representative or Enrollment Guide is your first point of contact before you talk to the Housing Department, but we are happy to answer your questions at any time. Make arrangements with the Enrollment Guide Team for living expenses (if needed).

3. Thoroughly read your Housing Guide and contact the Housing Department prior to sending an application or deposit to any apartment complex. The Housing Department’s knowledge of local complexes provides excellent assistance in your apartment search.
   Please Note: Websites that review apartment complexes are neither reliable nor accurate and cannot be used as a dependable source of information. The Housing Department receives continuous feedback about the complexes in the area, and our staff visits the complexes regularly. We are happy to share this information with you. Also, please remember that websites and social-media sites that offer to help you find apartments or roommates are not familiar with the needs of Full Sail students and cannot provide you with accurate information. The Full Sail University Housing Department has all of the information you need to make your relocation to Winter Park easy and successful.

4. Ask the leasing agent for the most cost-effective way to fulfill the length of lease you need. Be aware of extra charges for month-to-month fees and/or the maximum percentage the rent could increase if you should renew your lease.

5. Please read the important article regarding Student Safety—see the Table of Contents in the front of this guide. We highly suggest that you review it and that you obtain renters insurance to protect yourself against theft, fire, natural disasters, and other calamities. Some apartments require renters insurance. You will find a list of Full Sail–friendly providers in the Renters Insurance Agents section following the complexes featured at the end of this guide.

6. You must have your tuition and living expenses secured prior to receiving a roommate list. Once your funding is complete and confirmed with your Enrollment Guide, you can contact your Housing Coordinator to complete your roommate profile and begin receiving the roommate lists.
   Please Note: The roommate list is ONLY available directly from a Housing Coordinator and is not available online. Social-media sites are not appropriate for securing roommates. Full Sail’s own Facebook page is a great place to network or chat, but your Housing Coordinator will provide you the proper resources to help you select a roommate. Your coordinator will provide questions to ask a potential roommate that may have never occurred to you.

7. Your apartment complex will supply your application and help you establish your move-in date. Your paperwork and deposits will be submitted directly to the complex. Please be prompt and thorough when submitting paperwork and deposits to the complex. This will ensure that your apartment is held for you until you arrive.
8. Contact the utility companies to arrange for service. Specific utility information will be provided by the apartment complex.

9. If you require furniture, Cort (www.cort.com) offers student packages. There are also several places to purchase furniture nearby, including Cort. Please call the Housing Department for details.

10. Approximately one week before you arrive, confirm your move-in date and time with your apartment complex and utility companies to verify that everything is in order for you to move in. Establish your move-in time. Some complexes may only do move-ins during certain hours. If you do not have housing arrangements in place before you arrive, you will need to make arrangements to stay in a hotel. Please be aware that there are no hotels within walking/biking distance of campus.

11. Make sure to have a prepared budget for living expenses. If you have questions or concerns about your living expenses or loans, please contact your Enrollment Guide Team. If you have questions about apartments or any other non-financial matters, please contact the Housing Department. We look forward to helping you!

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Important: Please read in its entirety. This article contains very important information. Contact the Housing Department with any questions or concerns.

Application fees are paid directly to the apartment at the time you apply. Each person occupying the apartment must apply individually and pay a separate application fee, which is non-refundable. All applicants must qualify individually and meet the specific standards of the complex to which they are applying.

A credit check, criminal background check, prior rental history, and proof of income will be required for most apartment complexes to approve your application. Most students require a cosigner. If you do not have a cosigner, please contact your Housing Coordinator. If you are granted admission into Full Sail University and have a criminal record, your acceptance into an apartment complex is not guaranteed. Full Sail University does not provide student housing, and the final decision regarding acceptance in these cases rests solely with the apartment complex. If you feel that there may be negative information contained in the check, it is best to discuss this with the complex staff prior to submitting your application. If your application is denied, please contact the Housing Department.

It is strongly recommended that you obtain renters insurance. Many apartment complexes require their tenants to carry a certain amount of coverage. Renters insurance will not only protect your belongings from theft but also from natural disaster. You will find a substantial list of Full Sail-friendly providers in this guide. Remember, the apartment complex is not liable for your personal belongings under any circumstances.

On move-in day, you should be prepared to: show adequate identification, sign the lease, pay the security deposit (if you have not already), and pay the first month’s rent (which will be pro-rated for the balance of the month). Depending on your move-in date, the second month’s rent may be required as well. You may also be required to present your social security card or provide your social security number.

Leases are legal and binding contracts and should be taken seriously. Each apartment complex has published rules and regulations. Be advised that you may be evicted for non-payment of rent or non-compliance with the rules and regulations. An eviction from any property is reported to the credit bureau and will have a negative impact on your credit in the future. If for any reason you have to break your lease, contact the Housing Department immediately. In certain cases, we can offer assistance to you and your family; however, Full Sail University will not assume responsibility for your lease under any circumstances.

Prior to moving out, you must give at least 30–60 days written notice to your apartment manager that you plan to vacate the apartment—no exceptions! It will be your responsibility to return the keys to their office before you leave. You will be charged for each day that you keep the keys after your move-out date. We strongly recommend that you request a walk-through of your apartment with a representative of the property to ensure that all is in order. This will help to determine what, if anything, needs to be fixed in order for you to receive all, or a portion, of your security deposit back. Do not expect your deposit to be returned the same day you move out. You will need to leave a forwarding address where a check can be mailed to you. You also need to make arrangements to disconnect your various utilities and provide them with a forwarding address as well so they can mail your final bill to you.
BEFORE YOU BEGIN YOUR ROOMMATE SEARCH

If you have not yet secured your living expenses, please contact your Enrollment Guide. If you have any questions about finding a roommate, please contact the Housing Department and we will be happy to assist you.

Many students are very eager to start searching for a roommate as soon as they enroll. It is very important to thoroughly interview anyone you are considering as a potential roommate. It’s also important for parents to talk with other parents.

Remember that a lease is a legally binding contract; you have an obligation to your roommate to uphold your portion. Also keep in mind that most complexes do not offer individual leases. This means that if one roommate moves out and/or refuses to pay rent, then the other roommate must pay the entire rental amount until a new roommate can be found. This can be detrimental to another student’s finances. It can also be harmful to the student’s studies, as he or she must take the time to find a new roommate.

For these reasons, students must have their tuition secured and a solid plan to cover their living expenses before receiving a roommate list. It is also important to thoroughly interview anyone you are considering as a potential roommate. Ask a lot of questions—particularly those concerning how they will be paying for their living expenses. Do not commit to anyone that you feel will not be able to pay their portion of the rent for the duration of the lease.

Social Media Websites (Facebook and Connect)

The Housing Department provides a roommate list to students who have their tuition covered and a solid plan to cover their living expenses. Students who do not have their finances in order must work with their Enrollment Guide Team to secure funding before obtaining the roommate list; however, we are always happy to discuss apartment selections as students work with Enrollment.

The official roommate list can only be obtained from the Full Sail Housing Department. It cannot be found on any website. Full Sail’s Facebook page and the Full Sail Connect website are not adequate alternatives to the Full Sail roommate list. Please call the Housing Department before using any websites to search for apartments or roommates. Many websites are deceiving and untrustworthy, appearing to be related to Full Sail when they have no connection. The use of any resources outside the Housing Department to find a roommate may cause unforeseen complications. Call the Housing Department for details.

SUGGESTIONS FOR INTERVIEWING POTENTIAL ROOMMATES

Selecting a roommate is a personal matter. Full Sail’s only involvement in this process is to inform you of others who may also be seeking roommates and to pass on information from other students. We make no judgments as to whether or not someone would be a good roommate for you.

Students must have their tuition and living expenses secured before receiving a roommate list.

Remember that your financial responsibility to your roommate comes before anything else. Rent, utilities, grocery money, etc., should be set aside and paid promptly to ensure good credit and a good relationship with your roommate as well as your debtors. Do not commit yourself to a roommate if your finances are not in order.
At Full Sail, you have the luxury of choosing your roommate, so ask a lot of questions. Some important things to talk about when considering someone as a roommate include:

- How will your roommate pay for their portion of the rent and utilities? People who haven’t given this much thought or those who do not have a solid financial plan are people you may want to avoid. Also, discuss who will be in charge of getting the payments to the apartment complex and utility companies on time.

- Discuss your personal space. Do you mind if your roommate comes into your room without permission to borrow a DVD, CD or a game, or do you want your room to be strictly off-limits without your permission? Be sure to clearly define your boundaries.

- Talk about grocery shopping. Will you shop together and split the bill or will you shop separately? If you shop separately, do you mind your roommate using your milk, potato chips, soda, etc.? Be specific in your requests.

- Discuss cleanliness. Most people think that they are average when it comes to tidiness, so be sure to define “average.” For example, is it acceptable for dishes to be left in the sink overnight or should they be done before going to bed at night? Will there be a cleaning schedule for the common rooms of the house? How will the garbage duties be set up? Again, it is important to be specific.

- Talk about your social habits. Is it okay for your roommate to have parties in the apartment or should the party be held elsewhere? Is it alright for your roommate to invite people to the apartment that you do not know? You should also discuss your needs for when you are studying and sleeping.

- Talk openly about drugs, alcohol, smoking and having significant others over at the apartment. If these things are not okay with you, be honest about it. This is not the time to compromise your personal feelings or beliefs on such sensitive topics.

- Discuss anything else you can think of that might compromise a friendly living relationship. It is important to set up as many rules and expectations as you can up-front. It is much easier to prevent roommate problems before you move in together than it is to fix them afterward.

Also, when you are interviewing roommates, be sure to call the people on the roommate list and don’t rely on just email and text. Most people who try to find a roommate using email do not enjoy much success. You need to actually speak to the fellow student you are interested in living with. Also, since you lose voice inflection and emotion with email and text, the phone will help you get a better idea of what a person is really like. It is very important for parents to talk to each other, too.

Finally, don’t be in such a hurry to find your roommate that you don’t take the time to really learn what the other person is like. It’s okay to decide after a few phone conversations that while someone is really cool, they may not be the best person for you to live with.

Even though the questions listed here may not seem important to you now, they may become very important as you begin your studies. Once again, roommate matters are personal and not the business of Full Sail. For this reason, you must work together to create a pleasurable “home” environment you can both enjoy.
LIVING WITH A CURRENT STUDENT

The Housing Department not only helps incoming students find roommates; we also assist current students who need to find new roommates. You may receive a call from one of these students. If you are considering moving in with a current Full Sail student, here are a few things that you must keep in mind:

• You must be added to the lease with the current student. All apartment complexes (and even some private landlords) require that everyone who lives in the dwelling must be on the lease. If the complex finds that you are living in the apartment but not on the lease, then you will be given a short amount of time to apply and be approved to live there. Failure to do so will result in eviction of everyone in the apartment.

• The qualification process for being added to the lease is exactly the same as if you were applying for a new lease. You can read about the approval qualifications in the Apartment Information section of this Housing Guide.

• If you move in with a current student, there is an excellent chance that they will graduate before you. This means that at some point during your studies, you will need to find a new roommate and possibly a new apartment. This process can be time consuming and challenging when you are involved with your studies.

• It is very important for you to view the apartment that you are considering moving into before you sign the lease. As soon as you sign the lease, you immediately become responsible for half of any damage that was caused before you moved in.

If you have any questions or concerns about anything that you have read here, please contact the Housing Department immediately to discuss them.

Renters Insurance is a necessary part of college living. Unfortunately, many residents overlook its benefits until the unexpected occurs. As a renter you are responsible for your personal property and personal liability, not your landlord.

Our Renters Insurance policy will cover your personal liability, which protects you financially if you cause damages to another resident's unit or property, and it also covers your personal possessions if they are damaged or stolen due to perils such as:

- Fire
- Theft
- Vandalism
- Smoke
- Explosion
- Windstorm or hail

RENTERS INSURANCE AGENTS

It is strongly suggested that you acquire renters insurance. Leases stipulate that in the event of a robbery, natural disaster or other damage that befalls your apartment, the complex is only responsible for the repairs to the building. Your personal possessions are not covered and renters insurance is normally a very inexpensive way to protect your personal possessions, including your laptop. You are also encouraged to contact your home or car insurance provider to see if they offer renters insurance and how their rates compare.
